

Bees, Mankind and the Countryside

Venue: Aller Village Hall and Silent Elms, Wearne, Langport.

Date: Wednesday 21st July 2010

Time: 2 pm - 5.30 pm, includes refreshments

Cost: Members £10 Non members £20

Join FWAG adviser Helen Jones and David Charles, President, Somerton & District Bee Keepers Association for:

- A presentation on Bees and value to us in food production.
- A site visit to discuss improving the habitats that will help to halt their decline.
- Find out the facts about the decline in bee numbers.
- Learn about different types of bees and how they can help you.
- See how you can provide habitats to increase bee numbers on your farm.

By kind permission of Mr G Wilson

For more information or to reserve your place call the FWAG Office on 01823 355427

Bees, Mankind and the Countryside

Venue: Aller Village Hall and Silent Elms, Wearne, Langport.

Date: Wednesday 21st July 2010

Time: 2 pm - 5.30 pm, includes refreshments

Cost: Members £10 Non members £20

Join FWAG adviser Helen Jones and David Charles, President, Somerton & District Bee Keepers Association for:

- A presentation on Bees and value to us in food production.
- A site visit to discuss improving the habitats that will help to halt their decline.
- Find out the facts about the decline in bee numbers.
- Learn about different types of bees and how they can help you.
- See how you can provide habitats to increase bee numbers on your farm.

By kind permission of Mr G Wilson

For more information or to reserve your place call the FWAG Office on 01823 355427

